The Green Grass Sep 25 2019 The Green Grass tells the gripping story of a single mother coming to America and all the struggles and sacrifices she has to make in order to survive. Leaving a life of semi-luxury where she had her own servant she must now work as a live-in-housekeeper if she wants to get her green card and eventually have her family join her. How she deals with the emotional trauma of being separated: not only from her life as she knew it, but from her parents, her siblings and above all her two children is an amazing tale of the endurance of the human spirit. Will she ever be reunited with them? Will she ever see her parents again? Will her green card status affect her in the most profound and painful way possible? These suspenseful events will all be revealed in the telling of this remarkable story. Amidst all of this her constant battles to succeed in obtaining her Green Card for herself and her family will give you a new insight of what it is like to be an Immigrant and may give you a view of the Immigration issues from a different end of the spectrum. Her trials and tribulations will bring you to tears and hopefully her triumphs will give you a sense of hope that no matter how hard life becomes, patience and forbearance will bring you through it all.

The Caribbean in a Changing World Aug 05 2020 This collection is a critical reflection of the evolution of Caribbean countries since the demise of the West Indies Federation in 1962. At this historical juncture, some territories opted for independence while others remained dependent territories. The volume examines Caribbean societies in comparative and general ways, covering aspects of their ongoing development and challenges. It covers such areas as Caribbean integration, the state of human capital and social policy in the region, the education sector, Caribbean economic sustainability, and, significantly, the physical environment of the Caribbean. A central question has always been: should these territories have gone independent or stayed under some British tutelage? The book addresses this question, illustrating that these island states have made considerable progress, especially in the maintenance and deepening of democratic practices.

¡Necesario! Pre-CSEC Spanish Grades 7-9 Practice Paper II for the Caribbean A Three-Year Workbook Mar 31 2020 ¡Necesario! Pre-CSEC Spanish Practice Paper II for the Caribbean Grades 7-9: A Three-Year Workbook is a workbook for the first three years of high school Spanish that mimics the structure and items given by the new CSEC Spanish examination (as of 2017). The workbook focuses on the reading and writing (Paper II) components of the CSEC examination. All items are original. The examining body (CXC) consistently reports that students continually perform poorly on the paper II (reading and writing paper) compared to the other papers. It also recommends that students be exposed to these types of items from as early as possible. It is with these in mind that the author decided to compose a workbook that seeks to expose students to the types of questions and the structure of the exam paper itself, and how they can interpret and manipulate the items from as early as first form; Grade 7. This is the teacher's workbook for the ¡Necesario! Pre-CSEC Spanish Practice Paper II for the Caribbean Grades 7-9. Libro de Estudiantes accompanies this text.

Monitoring Educational Performance in the Caribbean Jul 04 2020 This study represents a first attempt of providing a comprehensive quantification of educational outcomes in the Caribbean region. Its main objectives are: (a) to define a set of operationally relevant education indicators (b) to provide a database of comparable education indicators in Caribbean countries where data is available, namely Belize, Dominica, Dominican Republic, Grenada, Guyana, Jamaica, St Kitts and Nevis, St Lucia, St Vincent and the Grenadines and Trinidad and Tobago and (c) to propose methods on how the common set of indicators can be used for analyses of the education sectors. This exercise is all the more important within the framework of the current Education For All (EFA) and Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) initiatives which require the identification and monitoring of relevant indicators to establish where the countries stand in relation to the target of universal primary education. After a systematic review of educational indicators in coverage, efficiency and quality which leads to specific recommendations on the type of indicator relevant to operational diagnostics of the education sectors, the study provides a detailed review of the Caribbean status in producing education indicators and demonstrates how a new database can be used to depict where the education sectors stand. Building on these methods and findings, its final section presents a set of specific recommendations to the Caribbean countries on how to improve the diagnostics of their education sectors.
